

UNIVERSITAS INDONESIA
veritas, probitas, iustitia

Prof. Hera Lestari Mikarsa, PhD

A psychologist and a professor, she specialized in Children Development. Today, Prof. Hera is teaching in undergraduate and postgraduate programs in Faculty of Psychology, Universitas Indonesia, specialized in Developmental Psychology. She's the Secretary of The Board of Professors, Faculty of Psychology, Universitas Indonesia. Other than that, she's also the chairperson of KPMA Faculty of Psychology UI and the Coordinator of Psychology Education Compartment in the Center of Indonesian Psychological Association. Prof. Hera, who was born on 19 December 1944 in Rengasdengklok, earned her bachelor degree in Faculty of Psychology Universitas Indonesia in 1969. She took non-degree program in Child Clinical Psychology, Warneford and Park Hospital, Oxford-United Kingdom (1974-1975), specialized in Developmental Psychology, as an association between Faculty of Psychology UI and Pedologisch Instituut Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam (1980). She gained Ph.D degree in University of Surrey, Guildford-United Kingdom in 1992.

Her published works in recent years are: "Indonesia", Routledge International Encyclopedia of Adolescence (2007), Fairy Tales and Children Book as Information Resources for Economic Insight (2004), Economic Disparity in the Eyes of Indonesian Children (2004). She also won an award as Exemplary Lecturer III Faculty of Psychology UI and also Satyalancana Karya Satya for 20-30 years.