

UNIVERSITAS INDONESIA
veritas, probitas, iustitia

Prof. Dr. Nazaruddin Sjamsuddin, MA

Professor Nazaruddin is an expert in political science. He has been taking part in many domains related to politics, such as serving as The Head of Political Science Department (1982-1988), becoming a journalist, and later Editor in Chief of Indonesia Magazine, a researcher in The Indonesian Institute of Sciences (LIPI), and the member of groups at the instance of the government. In 1985, he established Indonesian Association of Political Sciences (AIPI), which he's been leading since 1991. He was born in Bireuen, Aceh, 5 November 1944, he earned his bachelor degree in Faculty of Law and Social Sciences (majoring in Social Sciences, now FISIP) Universitas Indonesia in 1970, and later continued studying in Monash University, Melbourne (Australia), where he earned MA and PhD degree in Political Science.

Some of his national and international published works are PNI and Its Politicity (1984), The Republican Revolt (1985), Political Integration in Indonesia (1989), The Uprising of The Republicans (1990), The Dynamics of Indonesian Political System (1993), and Revolution in Serambi Mekah (1996).